Dear Lisa,

Did you receive an MS4 Compliance Audit Letter this winter, notifying you that you had missed some of the workshops offered by RI NEMO and our RI Stormwater Solutions partners? If so, we have a few upcoming opportunities for you to earn credit toward your permit requirements.

Managing Wet Weather Workshop

The Blackstone River Coalition is hosting a workshop that will discuss how communities can better address stormwater management practices.

RI NEMO's Lisa Philo will be giving a short presentation, summarizing the municipal outreach that was presented at our November 2008 workshop: Reaching Out To Residents.

This workshop is not mandatory. However, if you missed the November workshop, this would be a great opportunity to review the materials and strategies RI Stormwater Solutions has developed for municipalities to meet their public education and involvement requirements.

Workshop Details:

When: May 14, 2009 from 2:00 - 8:00 pm

Where: Alternatives Unlimited, 50 Douglas Road,
Whitinsville, MA

Website: Zap The Blackstone

For registration information, please visit the website provided above.

Small Work Groups @ URI

If you're looking to discuss how to customize your stormwater educational program, we have an offer for you!

Lorraine Joubert and Lisa Philo will be holding small work sessions at the University of Rhode Island, in order to discuss communities' individual needs and concerns and help them formulate customized outreach strategies.

The work sessions will be scheduled at the convenience of participating communities.

If you're interested in participating, please contact Lisa Philo, using the e-mail provided below.

Sincerely,

Lisa DeProspero Philo
